HUGHES HALL MAY BALL

SATURDAY 16TH JUNE
UNIVERSITY OF CAMBRIDGE

Welcome to Hughes Hall

Hughes Hall is the oldest of the mature student colleges at Cambridge, combining modernity with tradition, and academic excellence with egalitarianism.

Hughes Hall alumni form an extraordinary international community, over 10,000 strong and represented in over 116 countries. Constituting a vast body of knowledge and working across a wide spectrum of professional and academic activity, the collective impact of Hughesians is enormous.

The college is especially known for its MBA, law and medical students. We also have a strong rowing tradition, with our College overrepresented in the University team.

A Lavish Affair

Hughes Hall brings together 750 University of Cambridge students, Alumni and their guests in one of the most exclusive Cambridge May Balls.

Widely recognised as the highlight of the social calendar, the May Ball is an annual celebration of creativity, culture and fun.

Guests can look forward to a night of live music, fine food and complimentary drinks, with a tantalising selection of luxury experiences on offer. From a casino and games room to a candlelit secret garden and fairground attractions, the May Ball provides for all of our discerning guests' tastes and temptations.

All this, and more, will provide a night to truly remember.

Sponsorship Opportunities

Our partnerships with various organisations help us to create such a fantastic event each year. In return, we offer a unique environment through which we can promote our partner organisations. Promotion is not limited just to the ball, but is spread across the year and targets students at Hughes Hall, in addition to students across the University of Cambridge.
